Rep. Fritchey to Host Arts Funding Seminar Individuals and organizations encouraged to attend

Chicago – State Representative John Fritchey is pleased to announce his 12th Annual Arts Funding Seminar. This forum has repeatedly proven to be a great chance for everyone from artists to schools to theater groups to performers to find out what grants or opportunities may exist to help them achieve their goals and present their work.

Representatives from the Illinois Arts Council and the City of Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs will be on hand to discuss the different types of public support that are available to artists and arts or community organizations.

Details are as follows:

DATE: Saturday, October 18, 2008
TIME: 9:30am
PLACE: Lincoln Belmont Library
1659 W. Melrose

“I am proud to represent a district with such a wide variety of talented artists and arts organizations,” stated Rep. Fritchey. “Participation in this event has grown steadily over the years, and I hope this year is no exception.”
